11th International Computational Accelerator Physics Conference (ICAP)

The 2012 International Computational Accelerator Conference will be held August 19-24, 2012 in Rostock-Warnemünde (Germany) at the coast of the Baltic Sea.

The conference venue will be the Yachthafenresidenz Hohe Düne located at Am Yachthafen 1 just besides the yachting harbour of Warnemünde.

ICAP is focused on advances in Computational Accelerator Physics and Numerical Field Calculation, and their application to existing and future machines.

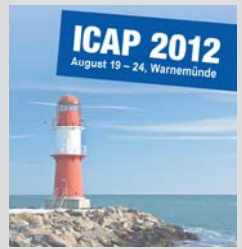

ICAP 2012 will be the 11th in the conference series following meetings in La Jolla, USA (1988), Los Alamos, USA (1990), Pleasanton, USA (1993), Williamsburg, USA (1996), Monterey, USA (1998), Darmstadt, Germany (2000), East Lansing, USA (2002), St. Petersburg, Russia (2004), Chamonix, France (2006), and San Francisco, USA (2009).

University of Rostock has the honor to organize the ICAP 2012

Problem:

No experience using SPMS.

Solution:

Michaela Marx and Volker Schaa agreed to help us using SPMS and editing the papers.

First meeting about two weeks ago at DESY.

“SPMS seems to be a powerful tool for the complete management of a conference.” (Dirk H)

“Using the SPMS is optional.” (Christine P-J-G)
